

Open Season For Birds.
The "open season" for shooting birds in Rockingham county takes effect tomorrow, 25th, and continues until January 26th.

Land Posted Notices.
The Post-Dispatch has for sale land posted notices, printed on cardboard 9x12; they are two for five cents.

Town Ordinances.
In view of the effort being made to make Rockingham an even cleaner town, it might be well for the Post-Dispatch to publish here the town ordinances governing the sweeping of trash, etc., in front of stores and places of business. Here they are:

Ordinance No. 7: That no person shall sweep any trash, paper, or other litter upon the streets, sidewalks or alleys of the said city. Any person violating this ordinance shall pay a fine of $5.00.

Ordinance No. 8: That no person shall permit any wood, chips or litter to remain upon any street, sidewalk or alley for more than 8 hours. Fine $5.00.

Ordinance No. 9: That it shall be unlawful for any merchant or other person to place or permit to remain on any street, sidewalk or alley in the city any merchandise, coops, boxes, barrels, trash or rubbish; provided, that merchants shall be allowed to open their goods upon the sidewalk, but they shall not allow said goods or the boxes, barrels, crates or other things in which said goods were shipped to remain upon the sidewalk longer than is necessary for the removal of the goods from them. Provided, further, that merchants be allowed two feet of the sidewalk in front of their stores to display their goods. Violation fine $5.00.

Didn't Want To Testify.

David Jones, a young white man, was bound over to Superior Court Monday by Squires Guthrie and Mullins on the charge of selling whiskey and operating a car while drunk. In default of bond, he went to jail. He is the same fellow, by the way, who "borrowed" for several hours M. L. Tucker's car last week. Mr. Tucker gave him a beating instead of prosecuting him. Wessie Baldwin, a negro, who it is alleged, bought the whiskey from Jones, announced that he would not be brought to town as a witness. Officer Meacham had to use handcuffs to make him come. He was required to give a $200 bond to insure his appearing at court as a witness in the case.

That Blue Mark.
Again the blue X mark appears on the papers of all whose subscriptions are in arrears. Look at your label and see how you stand.

Death Investigated.
Coroner A. M. Smith was called to Steele's township Saturday morning to investigate the death of Lizzie Stanback, colored, wife of Adam Stanback. The woman was taken suddenly ill Friday and died that night.

Mr. Smith had Doctor W. R. McIntosh and Rankin to hold a post-mortem examination and these certified that the woman came to her death from a perforation of the bowel probably caused by some pathological condition—acute appendicitis.

The members of the coroner's jury, so reported, and the matter ended. The jurors were J. J. Lee, G. W. Williamson, Marvin, Haywood, J. W. Smith, D. A. Parsons, J. B. Reynolds.

Game By Radio.

A number of fans on last Saturday enjoyed the Carolina-Davidson game by radio, in the rooms of the Lambeth-Armfield Dodge Agency here. The game was heard play by play, perfectly distinct, and almost made a fellow feel he was actually seeing the game. Carolina won 29-6.

Mr. Lambeth will, on Thanksgiving Day, receive the Carolina-Virginia game play by play, and the public is invited to drop in and hear it. The game starts in Charlottesville, Va., at 2:30—and of course the reports begin coming in here at the same time.

Some Official Votes.

The official vote for Congress in the following counties is of interest: Richmond: Hammer, 2,440; Love, 2,271—Democratic majority 2,213. Davidson: Hammer, 5,753; Love, 5,100—Democratic majority 653. Anson: Hammer, 1,753; Love, 70—Democratic majority 1,683. Scotland: Hammer, 858; Love, 30—Democratic majority 828. (Mr. Hammer's majority in the district was around 7,000.)

Services at the Episcopal church Sunday night at 7:30 with subject, "Harmful Effects of Reticence." On Thanksgiving services will be held at 7:30 at night. Mr. Hartzell will hold union service for Presbyterian and Episcopal congregations at Hamlet Thanksgiving morning.

Mrs. W. T. Payne Killed by Train.

Friends and relatives in Rockingham were shocked to learn of the fatal accident that befell Mrs. W. T. Payne at Suffolk, Va., last Friday night. Mrs. Payne had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. N. Everett, here for 3 weeks this fall, and from here had gone to Greenville, S. C., to visit Mrs. Marlborough Pegues. Her visit there concluded, she returned to Rockingham on Thursday of last week, having been met in Charlotte by Mrs. Everett. On Friday, her son, Beverley T. Payne, carried her to Hamlet and placed her on Seaboard train No. 12 for Norfolk, her home.

A misunderstanding by the similarity in names caused Mrs. Payne to leave the train at Suffolk, thinking the porter had called "Norfolk." Of late months her eyesight had failed her almost to the point of total blindness; and when she alighted at Suffolk she doubtless passed the station, thinking she was walking towards the Portsmouth ferry shed. At any rate, a freight conductor met her possibly a hundred yards above the station and it was then Mrs. Payne learned that she was at the #### Shankle's Slayer's Trial.

Robin Duke will be on trial this week at Albemarle for the killing about three months ago of Brant Shankle. Judge Long is presiding and Solicitor Nash is prosecuting. Shankle was killed by Duke while in a game of cards one Sunday afternoon near Norwood, Stanly county. It is probable that only a second-degree verdict will be sought.

S. W. Steele, Sr., Wednesday afternoon landed a three and a ten-pound bass in Pee Dee mill mill pond—and brought them down town in order that the weights might be unquestioned. With an ordinary fellow catching such a fish would be glory for a life-time; but not so with Mr. Steele; he was back at the mill pond this morning at sun-up—with 'nary a bite all day.

SANFORD 7, RHAM 6

Defeated But Not Outplayed Rham Highs Lose to Sanford at Pinehurst Last Friday by Margin of One Point. Rham Made 14 First Downs to 12 for Sanford and Continually Threatened Sanford's Goal.

Rockingham Highs were eliminated from the Championship series last Friday, Nov. 17th, at Pinehurst by Sanford by a margin of one point. Each team scored a touchdown, but Sanford kicked goal and Rockingham didn't—and thereby Sanford continues upward, meeting Durham at Chapel Hill tomorrow and Rham drops out.

But it was a finely fought game, well refereed and clean. Sanford was penalized four times for total of 40 yards and Rham twice

Carrier Examination.

An examination will be held at Rockingham Jan. 13th for position as R. F. D. Carrier for Route 1. This is made vacant by the transfer, effective Dec. 2nd, of Carrier Ralph Hutchinson who goes on Dec. 2nd to the tri-weekly Route 2 from Osborne.

Cotton Ginning.

To Nov. 14th there was 8,839,000 bales of cotton ginned in the South. This compares with 7,274,201 ginned to same date last year which represented 91.2 per cent of the total crop. The total crop last year was 7,977,778. Estimates now are that the 1922 crop will be around 9,750,000.

You can leave Rockingham next Wednesday night at 6:40 on No. 6 and get to Charlottesville next day at 11:30; see the big game and leaving at 6:30, arrive back in Rockingham Friday morning at 8 o'clock. Round trip railroad fare, including lower berth Pullman is $25.32.

A spontaneous burst of applause followed Mr. Benton's announcement in the Baptist church Sunday morning that he had declined the call to Bennettsville.

The fire bell sounded at 7:09 tonight, but it was a false alarm. The hydrant at the R. S. Leak corner on Bungalow street was leaking, and someone phoned Central to get connection with Mr. Brock at the Fire station; and the idea was gathered that the fire truck was wanted.

METHODIST APPOINTMENTS

Rev. J. D. Bundy Comes To Rockingham and Rev. A. L. Ormond Goes To Fifth Avenue Church, Wilmington. Mr. Shore Returns As Presiding Elder.

The Methodist Conference adjourned at Raleigh Monday after the reading of the appointments. The Conference meets next year at Elizabeth City.

It is gratifying locally to know that Rev. J. H. Shore is returned as Presiding Elder of this Rockingham district. He has completed two years here, and the district is fortunate in having him in charge for the ensuing year.

Rev. A. L. Ormond has served four years at Rockingham and so according to the rule of the church he had to be moved. His friends are glad to know he is sent to Fifth Avenue church, Wilmington.

Rev. J. D. Bundy, a native of Laurinburg and formerly Presiding Elder, comes to Rockingham as the new pastor. In his coming the church and town feels that it has drawn the "prize package" of the Conference, so to speak. And in advance the Post-Dispatch wishes to extend to Mr. Bundy the glad hand for the community and to assure him of its utmost co-operation.

Mr. Bundy is the son of the late T. C. Bundy, one of the earliest citizens of Laurinburg. He attended the Laurinburg schools and then went to Trinity College where he graduated with honors. Returning to his home town he became editor and proprietor of the Laurinburg Exchange (which was later sold to R. D. Phillips), and at the same time served as Supt. of Public Instruction of his town. About 1890 he gave up his secular work and accepted the call to the ministry. As stated above, our people will gladly welcome him to Rockingham.

BUILD A BUILDING.

Ford Abandoned.

A white man named Tom Atkinson, from South Carolina, was found drunk in a Ford on Watson Heights Sunday. He sobered up in jail and was taxed with the costs Monday. The car appears to be ownerless, Atkinson stating that he paid two negroes $5 near Cheraw to bring him here, and that he has not seen them since. The presumption is that the negroes brought a load of whiskey here, or possibly had stolen the car themselves. Officer Hamer has it in his possession now.

Senatorial Vote.

Richmond county is in the 18th Senatorial district, composed of the counties of Scotland, Montgomery, Davidson and Richmond. The district is entitled to two Senators. Richmond and Montgomery were allowed to select the two Democratic nominees this year, and two years hence Scotland and Davidson will name the men; and so alternating every two years.

In the election Nov. 7th Messrs. W. E. Harrison and Chas. C. Bennett, the Democratic nominees, were elected by majorities ranging around 4,000. The exact vote in the district was:

W. E. Harrison ..... 11,650
Chas. C. Bennett ..... 11,569
Martin C. Freeman ..... 7,591
Jas. F. Jackson ..... 7,589

High School Election.

The students of Rockingham high school are perfecting their student government organization preparatory to entering the new high school building. Plans are being made for the care of the building and for the government of the student body by the student body. Rockingham high school has been working under student government for three years. It is the plan of the students to extend this system to meet the needs of the high school which has grown almost 100 per cent this year.

The great event of interest before the students now is the election of the president of the student body. Ammie Webb and Thomas Leak are the nominees. Both are fine boys and possess excellent qualities of leadership. The election will take place next week.

Street Work.

The top dressing was completed on Everett street today, and this street will be a finished job for traffic Saturday. North Washington is also completed.

On account of funds getting low, New street will not be hard surfaced eastward as at first contemplated. Also, no funds are as yet in sight for hard surfacing Wall street (from North Washington to the new high school.) A 20-foot wide hard surface will be built from Rham depot to Hitchcock creek bridge; also South Washington will be hard surfaced with 30-foot width from Methodist church to the Dr. J. M. Ledbetter corner.
